

Lomita Military Banner Program Application

INFORMATION

The City of Lomita, is proud to offer the Lomita Military Banner Program to honor current and former residents of Lomita who have served or are currently serving our country in any branch of the United States Military.

This program is being created to recognize the brave men and women of Lomita who currently serve or have served in the Armed Forces. The Lomita Military Banner Program offers an opportunity to honor loved ones with a street banner displaying their name, military picture and branch of service. Banners will be designed, printed and installed on street lamps along Lomita Blvd. They are double-sided with the same design on both sides and are approximately 30" wide by 70" tall. Banners will be displayed for a minimum of one year.

ELEGIBILITY

Honoree must be either current military personnel with military ID, a veteran who served in the United States Armed Forces in the past, or veterans of the past who are now deceased that reside or have resided in the City of Lomita.

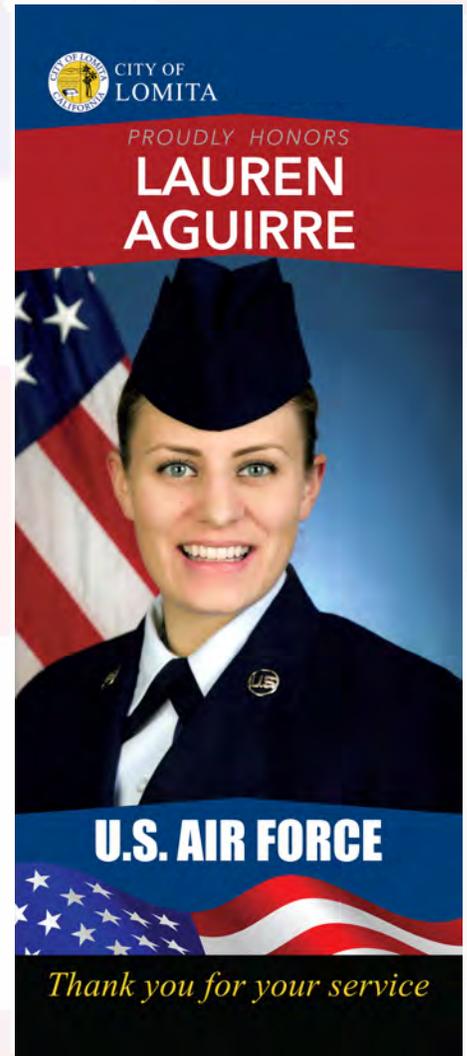

Acceptable U.S. Armed Forces Military Branches:
Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, Coast Guard

COST

The fee to sponsor a Military Banner is $250 per banner. This fee includes the cost of the banner as well as placement, installation and removal. You can help by sponsoring a banner or donating.

A special thank you goes out to Brandon Kamada, from Scouts BSA Troop 242 for creating the Lomita Military Banner Program in 2021. As part of his Eagle Scout Project, Brandon was responsible for creating and designing the banner, as well as implementing the inaugural program for Veterans Day in 2021. Through fundraising and community participation, he was able to produce the first 26 banners now proudly displayed on Lomita Blvd.

To sponsor a banner, donate, apply or for more information, please contact the City of Lomita at (310) 325-7110, or email militarybanners@lomitacity.com for information.
